OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES	On Saturdays, I sometimes go to calligraphy, but every week I go to a Japanese class. When classmates aren't busy we get together and hang out sometimes. My host family took me to Haus ten Bosch a few weeks ago as well to see the illumination show. School: After school on Thursdays I have Sado club. Home: Sometime this week my host sister is coming home from college because she's on her Spring Break. She'll be heading back next week though. On the 19th I might go to meet my third and last host family. I don't know when I'll be switching.
